

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXXII.

STANFORD, KY. TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1904. 3 P. M.

NO. 61

MIDDLEBURG.

These nights are pleasant and very conducive to sleep.

There was no preaching at any of the churches Sunday or Sunday night.

Harrison Cunningham, colored, was tried in Judge Raines' court at Liberty for breach of the peace and fined $100 and costs.

The dry weather continues. Not only stock water, but water for domestic uses is getting scarce in many parts. Rain is badly needed.

The protracted meeting closed at the Christian church Friday night with several conversions and additions to the church. Much good is sure to result.

Frank L. Jones, as administrator of his father, the late Major W. Jones, will have a public sale of stock, farming implements, etc., on Thursday, Oct. 6. See "ad." in this issue.

Gen. Wade Hampton Hogue, the namesake of a grand and glorious man, until he changed his politics for Federal pie, was married on the 23rd to Miss Julia Prather, Squire T. S. Benson tying the knot.

Crops are good in this section. Early upland and all bottom corn is the best in 10 years, while late upland corn is cut short by the drouth. Apples are scarce as is the peach crop. Other crops are good and farmers are happy.

The Edwards followers are very jubilant at the decision of the committee at Somerset, while the adherents of Hunter are very sore at the rough treatment received at the hands of the "Edwardized" committee. They call it drowsy-right robbery and many of them will mark their ballot for Honest Geo. Stone and the purity of the ballot.

Mrs. Sallie Elder has returned to her home in Missouri after a pleasant visit of several weeks to friends and relatives. John Eason and sister, Miss Pearl, of Garrard, were the guests of their cousin, Miss Sallie Eason. Miss Lulu Adams, who is teaching school at Celeste, spent Saturday and Sunday at home. Jason Wesley, the best circuit clerk and all-round republican in Kentucky, spent a few days with the home-folks. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Horton, of Frankfort, are with Mrs. Horton's father, Col. J. W. McWhorter, Sr., and other relatives. Mrs. Albia Brown returned to Louisville Monday after a pleasant visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Adams. Henderson DeBord, formerly of Bethel Ridge, has joined the regular army.

Here and There.

Expert safe blowers robbed the post office at Kingstree, S. C., of upward of $5,000.

Richard Cowherd, proprietor of the Campbellsville Hotel, dropped dead of apoplexy.

The population of Naples is alarmed by the increased eruption of Mount Vesuvius.

The World's Fair attendance for last week was 770,418, and the total attendance up to Sept. 24 is 11,792,828.

Under the will of Mrs. Elizabeth Green Kelly, of Chicago, the University of Chicago will receive about $100,000.

Ray Chiles, eight years old, of near Oak Grove, while playing, hid in a clothes chest and was suffocated to death.

Frank Denison, of Larue county, is dead from excessive cigarette smoking. A week ago his brother died from the same cause.

Maj. L. C. Norman, former State auditor and widely known in Kentucky as a democratic leader, died at his home in Frankfort, aged 62.

Dr. Van Doorelaer, Belgian member of the Parliamentary Union now visiting in the United States, was found dead in bed in Washington.

Three foreigners employed by the Pennsylvania railroad were run down and instantly killed while walking on the track at Greensburg, Pa.

The Kentucky World's Fair commission will give a reception in the Kentucky building Oct. 7 to the National Brick Manufacturers' Association.

R. W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Post, charged with criminal libel, waived examination in the police court for himself and paper and the cases go to the grand jury.

In a running fight near Laporte, Ind., a railroad detective captured John Shellman, who confessed that he was at the head of a gang of car robbers operating in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan.

At Aurora, Mo., J. H. Palmer, a miner, shot and mortally wounded W. T. Tuttle, another miner, killed three of his children and then shot himself. It is alleged that Mrs. Palmer was the cause of the trouble.

Because of a difficulty over a Negro at Valdosta, Ga., M. M. Carter is dead; Robert Knight is fatally wounded and George Hodge, the Negro over whom the trouble originated, has been shot to death by the friends of Carter.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Kentucky annual conference of the Methodist church will begin at Barbourville Wednesday. A large number of ministers is expected.

Elj. James H. Morion, of Tennessee, will begin a meeting at McCormack's church, to-morrow, Wednesday night, to continue a week or more. Preaching at 10 A. M. and 7 P. M.

The union services of the four churches here came to an end Sunday night. They have been well attended and the method will more than probably be repeated next summer.

The prayer meeting of the Christian church will be held with members of the congregation while that church is undergoing repairs. Next Thursday night it will be held at the home of Mr. Will Severance.

The first quarterly meeting of the Methodist church will be held here next Saturday and Sunday. The quarterly conference will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. W. Simpson, presiding elder, will be present.

The singing at the Christian church Sunday morning and that at the union services at the Presbyterian church in the evening was probably the best ever heard in Stanford. Prof. J. Walter Wilson and our musical talent made music worth going many miles to hear.

Dr. Hault, president of Central University, Danville, preached two excellent sermons at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. No more able preacher has been heard by a Stanford audience in years. Large crowds heard both of his splendid discourses.

The October County Meeting.

The semi-annual missionary meeting of the Christian churches of Lincoln county will be held at Willow Grove church, two and one-half miles west of Rustonville, on Saturday, Oct. 8th, service beginning at 10 o'clock A. M. Each church is urged to send delegates to the meeting prepared to report local conditions, etc. The program is as follows:

10 o'clock—Devotional service.
10:30—Address, Geo. W. Mills.
10:45—Song.
10:50—Report of the County Evangelist, J. G. Livingston.
11:15—Song.
11:20—Address, C. E. Powell, Lexington; subject, "The Danger of Apathy."

11:45—Reports from the churches and general discussion on the needs of the field.

Noon—Adjournment. Dinner served on the grounds.

1 o'clock P. M.—Devotional service.
1:20—Address, D. C. McCallum, Lexington; subject, "The Soul Winner at Work."
1:45—Song.
1:50—Address—H. C. Garrison, Danville.

2:20—Song.
2:25—Sermon—Joseph Ballou.

2:55—Closing remarks by the chairman.
3 o'clock—Song and Benediction.

P. W. Carter, Chairman, W. H. Shanks, Secretary.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr. John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Texas. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicine without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr. C. Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by all Druggists.

THE Lexington Democrat makes a great campaign offer of its Sunday and daily edition from now until after the November election for $1. This is about a cent a copy and is not only the cheapest daily you can get but the best democratic organ you can read during the present campaign. This office will take your order for the Democrat but the cash must invariably accompany it.

Mr. Lingerlong—What makes your little dog howl so?

Miss Vinnie Garr—He always howls like that when he thinks it is time to shut up the house for the night.

When troubled with constipation try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no griping or other unpleasant effect. For sale by all Druggists.

"I maintain," she declared, "that women are better speakers than men." "But sometimes quantity is mistaken for quality," he pointed out.—New Yorker.

The widow of Harrison Ballard is dead at Lawrenceburg, aged 81.

NEWS NOTES.

Louis Fleischmann, the millionaire banker and philanthropist, is dead. John Redmond, the Irish leader, in an address in Chicago, said the Irish race is dying.

Mrs. Peter Lewis, of Blockley, Iowa, mistook her husband for a chicken thief and killed him.

Four Negro children were burned to death in Clark county while their parents were at church.

The Standard Oil Company has advanced the price of all grades of petroleum except Ragland.

The main building of the University of Minnesota was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $125,000.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky Brewers' Association is in session at the World's Fair grounds.

Twenty school children fell through the floor of an outhouse at Pleasure Ridge and nine were killed.

One man was killed and another perhaps fatally injured by an explosion in a powder factory near Jellison.

John E. Woolfolk, a prominent farmer of Woodford county, shot and killed a Negro tenant on his farm.

The British steamer Crusader, bound from Oregon for the Far East, is said to have been captured by the Japs.

A fire at Dawson entailed damage to the extent of $250,000, there being no insurance on any of the property destroyed.

Editor J. H. Dearborn, of the Graphic, at Guthrie, has disappeared, and it is feared that he has been foully dealt with.

Winfield Roe, of Spencer county, was fatally wounded by his wife, who was cleaning his gun, which accidentally went off.

Henry Thompson, who shot and killed James Doyle in a saloon fight in Lexington in July last, was given a life sentence in the penitentiary.

Two clerks in San Francisco were held up by a masked robber and relieved of $4,400. Then the robber locked them in a room and escaped.

While responding to a toast at Frontenac, N. Y., and just after wishing his friends and himself long life, H. M. Magill, of Cincinnati, dropped dead.

Judge Pryor, of Louisville, decided that jurisdiction in the case of Barbour for killing Hagan lies in Bullitt county and the case will be tried at Shepherdsville.

A man named Blair was blown to pieces by the explosion of eleven sticks of dynamite, while dynamiting fish in Green river near Munsfordville. Pete Meredith's arm was shattered.

Miss Charlotte Boyer, of Ripley, O., was appointed pastor of the Methodist church at Chillicothe, O., being the only woman ever having received such an honor at the hands of that conference.

A Baltimore and Ohio freight train ran into a wagon load of dynamite at North Branch, W. Va. The engine and nine cars were destroyed, one man was killed and several others sustained injuries.

The miners of District No. 19, in Eastern Tennessee and Kentucky, have voted by an overwhelming majority against accepting the proposition of the mine operators to reduce the wage scale about 7 per cent. It is expected that a strike will follow, involving from 4,000 to 4,500 men.

Two passenger trains on the Southern railway, carrying heavy lists of passengers, collided near Newmarket, Tenn., and 62 people were killed and more than 100 were injured, several of whom probably will die. The wreck was caused by the failure of an engineer to obey orders. Relief trains were sent out from Knoxville, and the injured and those of the dead who were recovered from the wreck were taken to that city. The bodies of several of the trainmen are buried under the debris at the scene of the collision.

A plan to poison James B. Mulligan and his family at Lexington for the purpose of securing a large estate recently bequeathed the family, miscarried only by the confession of a colored house boy who claims to have been hired by a near relative of the Mulligan family to poison them. The Negro placed a large quantity of arsenic in a baked salmon which was served for dinner last evening. He weakened when he saw the family sit down to the table and gave warning barely in time. The near relative whom the Negro accuses will not be arrested.

Only Did His Duty as He Saw It.

"I deem it my duty to add a word of praise for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says J. Wiley Park, the well-known merchant and postmaster at Wiley, Ky. "I have been selling it for three or four years, and it gives complete satisfaction. Several of my customers tell me they would not do without it for anything. Very often, to my knowledge, one single dose has cured a severe attack of diarrhoea, and I positively know that it will cure the flux (dysentery). You are at liberty to use this testimonial as you please." Sold by all Druggists.

HUSTONVILLE.

Logan Russell, of Louisville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. J. Allen.

Our milliners are already too busy to have an opening and business in every line is looking up.

I have a splendid Hanging Fork bottom farm for rent. Come and see me quick. W. R. Williams.

Cowan & McCormack, our bustling live stock dealers, shipped a car of fat hogs to Cincinnati Saturday.

C. W. Adams has returned from Cincinnati, where he bought a large stock of goods for his beautiful new store.

The favorable weather the past week for building was taken advantage of by our contractors and fine progress in their work was the result.

The new residence of John B. Rout is going right up and will be completed within the next two or three weeks and will be a very handsome home, the credit for which is due Chief Architect Boyle.

Emmett McCormack, one of our popular candidates for assessor, has been called West for a two-weeks' stay. He will be back in abundant time to further pursue his race for the above office, however.

The beautiful colonial cottage of Chas. Wheeler is nearing completion and is surely a thing of beauty. The inside work will be completed within 10 days and the finishing touches of the wall decorations will be hurried to an early completion.

On Thursday and Friday nights Prof. J. Walter Wilson will give a splendid entertainment at the Christian church at the small admission price of 10 and 20 cents. Parties who are judges and have seen the entertainment are loud in its praise. Ben Hur the first night, should fill the house.

Misses Pattie and Bettie Moore, of Boston, are visiting the family of J. Brent Barnett. James Roberts, of Dunnville, visited Dr. Barker and family. Chas. Rose left last week to visit his mother in Ponca City, O. T. Rev. G. W. Mills and wife attended the convention of the Christian church at Winchester. W. C. Myers, aged 84, and father of Judge Wm. Myers, is seriously ill at his home near Kidd's Store.

The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the Weatherford Hotel last week was well attended and consisted in part of the laying of the first brick by Mrs. Mary J. Weatherford, under which was deposited almost a handful of pennies, nickels and dimes by the audience. Our building boom has reached for beyond the confines of the West End as evidenced daily by crowds thronging our streets from many miles distant, watching us grow and shopping while they wait.

MATRIMONIAL.

Tillman Padgett and Miss Retta Rowland were married at John A. Gooch's Monday.

The engagement of Henry C. Black, of Barbourville, to Miss Cora Ethel Fellows, of Somerset, is announced.

An early fall wedding which will come in the nature of a surprise to friends of the contracting parties will be that of Mr. John G. Lynn and Miss Maude Moore, both of this city. The marriage will be solemnized on Wednesday, Oct. 5th, at high noon, in St. Louis. After a short bridal trip the young couple will return to Danville and have rooms at Mrs. Anna Moore's, on Fourth Street. Miss Moore is at present visiting friends in the Mount City and Mr. Lynn will leave next Monday for that place.—Advocate. The prospective groom is a son of Mr. Jas. E. Lynn, of this place, and is a splendid young man. Miss Moore is well known here, where she has frequently visited.

Sour Stomach.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let five hours elapse between meals, and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided. For sale by all Druggists.

Because he refused to take a drink with him, James Sudduth, a farmer of Franklin county, shot and seriously wounded Charles Kratzel, a German.

Mrs. Louise Lisle Lee is dead in Danville.
